Christmas is the time of year when everyone tries to see if the things they do and the way they are, is really the best they can be. Santa tells us we're all very good by bringing us gifts of joy that say that this world is a wonderful place because of each boy and girl. So let Santa know that you have been doing your share by using this list of good deeds. Each day put a tick by each deed you achieve, and leave the card out for Santa on Christmas Eve.
